Catalyste+ Advisors

Catalyste+ Makes an Impact

The Magnetawan First Nation (MFN), an Ojibwe First Nation in Ontario, partnered with Catalyste+ on a project to assist with a peer review of their Five-Year Economic Development Plan and how to implement their economic development initiatives. Catalyste+ Advisor Ed Cornies reviewed the plan and proposals on both a gas station project and the Capital Planning Study and provided recommendations. Another Catalyste+ Advisor, Michael Ross, reviewed the inventory control of the existing gas bar so that it was ready for upgrade. Working with Catalyste+ helped the community go forward with the gas station project, which brought about the opening of a new Esso and Tim Horton's economic development venture. "We believe that the collaboration between Magnetawan First Nation and Catalyste+ is unique and innovative and will result in a solid and sustainable outcome in economic development for our community," says Chief Lloyd Myke, Head Councillor, MFN.
